Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. W.C. O'Neal

W.C. "Bud" O'Neal and Jessie O'Neal are celebrating their 50th wedding anniversary.

O'Neal of Emhouse and Jessie Standard of Lampasas were married April 9, 1940, in Lampasas.

They are the parents of three children, Bill O'Neal of Carthage; Judy Smith of Friendswood; and Mike O'Neal of Carrollton. The O'Neals have eight grandchildren.

ADA KATE O'NEAL

(Emhouse)

"The fairest of the rural maids was she."
A. Y. L. I. '20.

Aunt Ada Kate was the first in her family to graduate High School, and to seek a "better life" away from the farm. Her fellow graduates included several prominent Corsicana families - Kerr, Love, McClure, Megarity, Miller, Polk, Shell. After a business course, her career and life were sadly cut short as she died in a home fire in 1931 at age 26.

BEN SHARPLEY

BILLY SHARPLEY, End, Tackle

Billy had to do double duty this year.

He played end on offense and tackle on defense, and did a good job at both positions.

He will be back next year and is sure to do just as well in the coming season.

BILL SHARPLEY, Tackle

Bill was an all-round player both defensively and offensively. His leadership in practice is also to be recognized. He made the standards for playing tackle high; therefore his absence will hurt the line next season.

BEN SHARPLEY, Tackle

This big lineman's work on both offense and defense was a great asset to the Tiger team of '48. Ben's steady and dependable playing at left-tackle will be counted on heavily by next year's team.

BEN SHARPLEY—Tackle

This valuable lineman with his excellent blocking and tackling was another good reason why our line operated so effectively all season. Ben's willingness to lead the others in hard blocks made our line one of the best in the State. The loss of this enthusiastic player will be felt strongly by the Tigers of '50.

COSBY STEEN, Tackle

Cosby was a big boy who was always in there fighting. He will be greatly missed.

JOE STEEN—Joe's height helped him much in his basketball playing. A true ambition to play characterized his efforts at all times. His return next year will boot the team considerably.

BILL O'NEAL

Bill, an ever-hustling senior guard, played a good brand of rough football. He was one of the standouts of the Tiger line.

BILL O'NEAL

The guard positions were ably backed up by this rugged junior. When called on, he did a capable job. His return will strengthen next year's team.
