Item #6

I disinherit the two Children of Menerva E. Smith; afterwards the wife of Leroy O'Neal, which she bore by Leroy O'Neal; known by the names as Tommie and Gilley O'Neal, for the following reasons; inhuman and brutal treatment of their mother, my daughter; but her three children by Elbert Smith are to be admitted to have an equal share with the other grand children; that is, those three children to have their mother's share of my estate.

This probably explains why you have never known more about Emeline Hamrick.

I went to see several people to gather the material that I am sending. A Mr. U. W. Jordan, who is in his 97th year told me that the O'Neal children did not show any concern about their parents and that the Smith children were their only comforters in their old age.

Mrs. Couch of Villa Rica, a daughter of James Martin Hamrick remembers Gilley making them a visit when she was a small child but could tell me nothing more.
